The Company's Articles of Association Pertinent to Meetings of Shareholders and Voting

Summoning of Meetings of Shareholders

Article 37 The Board of Directors shall prepare a notice of the summoning of a meeting of shareholders, specifying the place, the day and the hours, the agenda, and the matters to be proposed to the meeting, together with such details as may be reasonable, and indicating clearly whether the matter(s) is/are proposed for information, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including the Board of Directors' opinion about it/them, and the notice shall be sent to the shareholders and the Registrar for acknowledgement not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the meeting and published for 3 consecutive days and not less than 3 days before the date fixed for the meeting in a Thai daily newspaper published and distributed in the locality where the principal office of the Company is situated.

The place to be used for the meeting of shareholders must be located in the locality where the principal office or a branch office is situated or in a province near the principal office location.

The Board of Directors may require that a meeting of shareholders be held via an electronic medium. In the case where a meeting of shareholders is held via an electronic medium, such meeting shall be in accordance with any pertinent laws, rules, notifications, requirements, regulations and criteria which are now present and to which any amendments would be made in the future.

Quorum

Article 38 Not less than 25 shareholders and proxies (if any) or not less than one-half of the shareholders representing not less than one-third in aggregate of the outstanding shares shall be present at a meeting of shareholders in order to constitute a quorum.

In the event that, within 1 hour from the time appointed for any meeting of shareholders, the quorum is not present as prescribed, the meeting, if summoned upon the requisition of shareholders, shall be dissolved. However, if such meeting had not been summoned upon the requisition of shareholders, another meeting shall be summoned and a letter of the summoning of the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than 7 days before the date fixed for the meeting. At such meeting, no quorum shall be necessary.

Grant of Proxy

Article 39 A shareholder may grant proxy to another person to be present at a meeting of shareholders and vote on his behalf. The proxy shall be dated and signed by the grantor and shall be in accordance with the form determined by the Registrar.

The proxy shall be deposited with the chairman or a person designated by him before the proxy holder attends the meeting.

Votes

Article 41 One ordinary share shall be for one vote and ten thousand preference shares for one vote. A resolution of a meeting of shareholders shall be passed by the following votes:

- (1) In an ordinary event, a majority of the votes of the shareholders present and entitled to vote shall be required. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote;
- (2) In the following events, not less than three-fourths of the votes of the shareholders present and entitled to vote shall be required:
 - (1) A sale or transfer of all or a substantial part of the business of the company to other persons;
 - (2) Acquisition or taking of a transfer of the business of other companies or private companies for the company;
 - (3) Execution, amendment or termination of an agreement concerning lease of all or a substantial part of the business of the company;
 - (4) Assignment of the management of the business of the company to other persons;
 - (5) Amalgamation with other persons for the purpose of sharing profits and losses;
 - (6) Amendment of the memorandum or articles of association;
 - (7) Increase or reduction of the capital of the company or issue of debentures;
 - (8) Merger or dissolution of the company

Article 42 A shareholder who is specially interested in any given matter has no right to vote on such matter, except on the appointment of a director.

The provision of this article shall also apply to the case where a proxy has been appointed to be present at the meeting.
